College Night Coming to Chicago

- Are you interested in learning more about opportunities to play in college?
- Is the recruiting process confusing?
- Do you think you are not good enough to play collegiate water polo?
- Do you wonder what you should be doing to prepare?
- Are you planning to go to a school without water polo and frustrated?

Come out to the college night to find the answers to these questions and more.

Dan Sharadin, Commissioner of the Collegiate Water Polo Association and Director of American Water Polo will give an overview of the collegiate scene and put to rest the myths about playing water polo in college.
