SENIOR SCHOLASTIC WATER POLO AWARD

For the last 3 years, senior water polo players are chosen as Senior Player of the Year. Each coach has the opportunity to choose two players they feel exemplify both fine athletes as well as contributors to our community. From the names submitted, coaches and referees selected one girl and one boy they felt met the requirements of the award. The athletes are chosen according to the following:

- * G.P.A.: 3.2 or above
- * dedication to water polo
- * activities involed in at school
(both athletic and extracurricular)
- * honors received
- * community involvement

The following individuals were nominated by their coaches to be recipients of Illinois State Water Polo Senior of the Year 1990:

I.S.A. WATER POLO

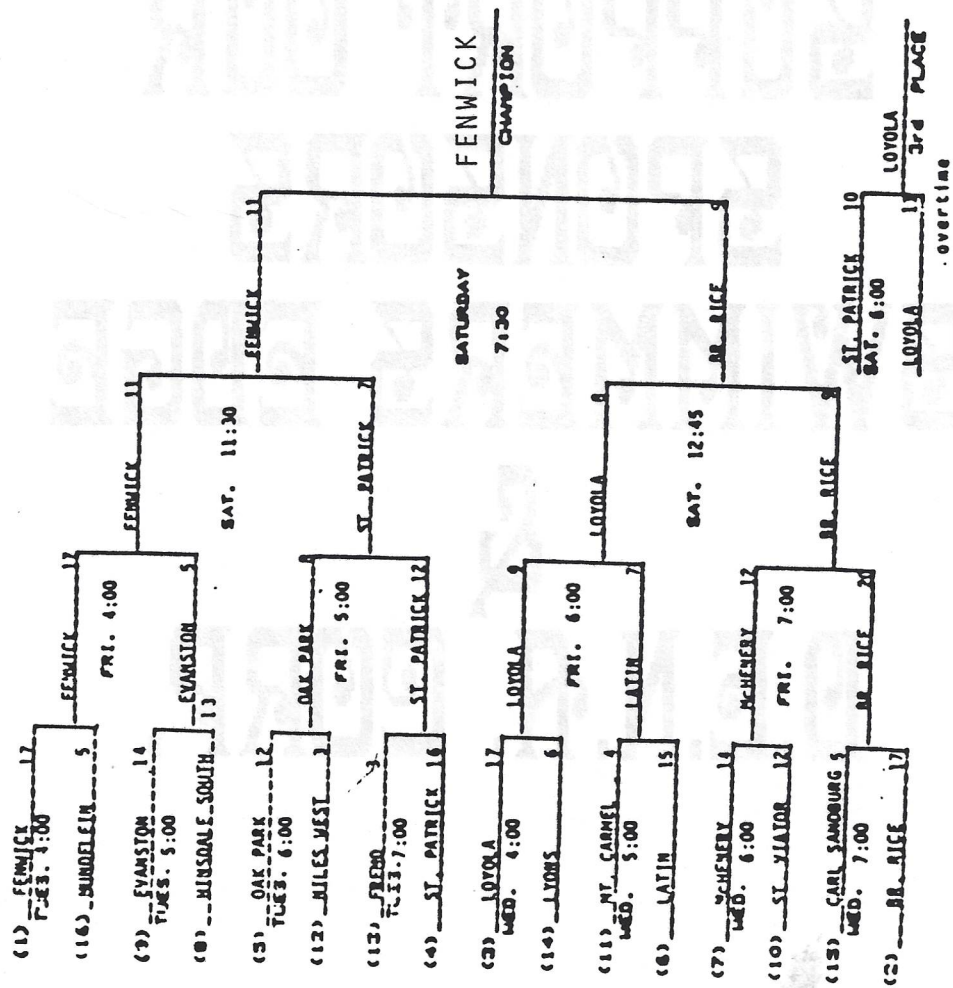

I would like to express a special thanks to all the parents, coaches, referees, and spectators for supporting I.S.A. WATER POLO. Without your help the accomplishments we have made, and the experiences we have had would not have been possible. It has been a great experience for me to serve as the I.S.A. Water Polo Chairman for the past 5 years. Rick Marsh of Loyola Academy will become the new Chairman.

THANK YOU ALL VERY MUCH!!!

Dave Perry
